(b) to (e) Naxal violence remains an area of serious concern. It is not merely a law and order problem but has deep socio-economic dimensions. Therefore, the Government has been pursuing a multi-pronged strategy to address this problem on political, security and development fronts. While effective and sustained police action is taken individually and jointly by the States to counter the naxal violence, the naxal affected States have also been asked to improve delivery and monitoring mechanisms to ensure accelerated development in the naxal affected areas. The Central Government continues to coordinate and supplement the efforts and resources of the State Governments on both security and development fronts to meet the challenge posed by the naxal problem.

Lapse in the security of Prime Minister's convoy

1565. SHRI ABDUL WAHAB PEEVEE: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Central Government have-asked for a report from the Kerala Government in regard to security lapses that the Prime Minister's convoy took a wrong route during his recent visit to that State; if so, what is the report; and

(b) what steps the Central Government have taken to avoid such incidents in future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) Yes, Sir. The Government of Kerala has viewed this security lapse very seriously and placed the Pilot Officer under suspension.
